

Outta Time

Chris Grey & The BlueSpand

Honey you were late Don't know why I'm left here standing alone Stayin's gonna fool with my mind thinking you ain't coming back no more

You know I'm lost when you're straying in the back of your hood foolin' with my money - - - when you wanna ride

Girl you can't get out and (you're) never gonna save the day
'cause we're running out of time
There's really nothing left to say

I gave you all my love babe stayed at home in our mansion did you get where you wanted - - - sucking everything outta me

You hit me like a steam train and picking up the pieces doesn't make no sense save your bullshit for the flowers - - - Girl we're thru

Girl you can't get out and (you're) never gonna save the day
'cause we're running out of time

Now I'm screaming out loud you are never gonna save the day
'cause we're running out of time
