

Butterflies

Chris Grey & The BlueSpand

My way of telling you
Well now you know
Try not to cry and don't question why
It was my time to go

All my ways
I never meant for you no harm
I know it's hard to go on. What I did girl was wrong
My way

Where're you gonna be when my love ain't around
And butterflies are gone
Forgive and you will see our love lingers on
What I did girl was wrong

My way of leaving you
You're left alone
I wanted your smile as long I was alive
And then I just, I died in your arms

All my way if I could turn back in time
Then I would make up a lie. Set you free before I died
My way

So where're you gonna be when my love ain't around
And butterflies are gone
Forgive and you will see that our love lingers on
What I did girl was wrong, so wrong of me

Where're you gonna be when my love ain't around
And butterflies are gone
Forgive and you will see that our love lingers on
What I did girl was wrong

It's so hard to breathe when your love ain't around
And butterflies are gone
Forgive and you will see, see that our love lingers on
